7. Teaching Adolescents English

Teenagers have an incredible enthusiasm for learning English due to their fascination with western pop culture. They are taking steps towards independence and planning their future careers. This Course will help you to teach your students English and to equip them with the tools they need to communicate in future school, work and social contexts.

8. TESOL for Non-Native English Teachers

As a non-native English speaker, you make up a significant portion of the thousands of English teachers around the world. This course will help you to develop the skills required to teach conversational English effectively, regardless of what your native language is, or where you plan to teach.

9. Teaching Computer English

Teach people worldwide how to learn English using computer programs and the internet (also referred to as CALL: Computer Assisted Language Learning). Using computers is an innovative and effective way to teach English. Computers - the ELT classroom of the future.

10. Teaching Medical English

Nurses, doctors and other foreign medical professionals must be proficient in medical terminology, procedures and concepts in order to work in a native-English speaking country, or to advance in their present position. Become certified to teach them the necessary English skills they need to succeed.

11. Teaching Legal English

Law students and foreign business people who do not speak English as their native language are looking for teachers who specialize in teaching legal terminology, concepts and international communication.

12. Tutoring English

Tutoring English full time or "on the side" is almost as popular as teaching in regular English classrooms. Tutor privately one to one, in small groups, over the phone, on the internet, or virtually anywhere. Specialize in tutoring basic or Specialized English, one of the most lucrative English teaching options.

15. Independent Study Elective

Tell the TESOL world your story by sharing your academic perspective. Select a TESOL related topic, and complete an independent research project. Perfect for the creative mind.

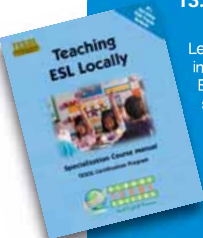

14. Teaching Tourism English

Tourism is the fastest growing industry in the world. Hotel staff, tour guides, store merchants, taxi drivers, as well as many other tourism related occupations require the skills to communicate in English. Be a part of this dynamic global industry.

13. Teaching ESL Locally

Learn how to teach English in USA, Canada, Australia, England, etc. Millions of students study English in native-English speaking nations. Teach English in ESL schools in your home country, learn how and what to teach, where to look for work, and how to promote yourself as a local English teacher and/or tutor.

16. TESOL Teaching Practicum

Put your TESOL knowledge and skills to the test! Practice teaching English at an ESL school of your choice, anywhere in the world. Gain valuable classroom experience and impressive resumé credentials by applying what you have learned in our TESOL Foundation Course.

"After completing the Business English specialization course, I can say that it was comprehensive, innovative and very well designed. It was the key to making a lot of money in a special field. I now make $40/hr. teaching business English in Japan."

We Know Where The Jobs Are

Where Do You Want To Go?

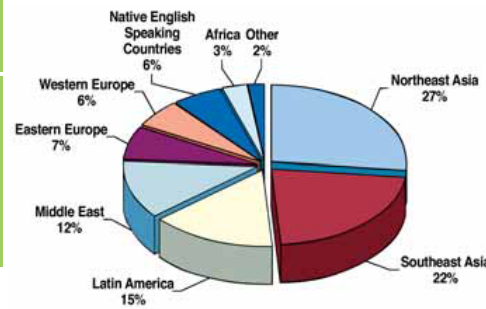

The range of locations and teaching situations available covers a very broad spectrum. As a TESOL Certified teacher, you will have employment opportunities available to you in most countries around the world. There only a handful of nations where English is not being widely studied (such as North Korea & Bhutan).

Destination Quick Facts:

- Global TESOL College graduates are teaching in over 85 countries.
- The job market is booming in more new countries each year (such as Kazakhstan & Myanmar).
- The job market continues to grow in established TESOL markets (such as South Korea & China).

Job availability varies greatly from country to country, but the overall global demand continues to steadily rise each year. Global TESOL graduates are working in incredible jobs in countries around the world... from popular destinations such as Japan and Taiwan, to the not so common countries like Nepal and Namibia.

Where You Can Teach English

Why Are There So Many Jobs?

Millions more each year are learning English so that they can communicate in the global economy. There are more than 50,000 TESOL jobs available worldwide. This is a very conservative estimate considering the large number of teachers required at present for countries such as China and South Korea.

Demand Quick Facts:

- Half a billion people are presently studying English around the world.
- 90% percent of the worlds' electronically stored data is in English.
- 80% of the websites on the internet are in English.

Let Us Help You Find Your Dream Destination

ASIA is a fascinating place where ancient traditions and modern advances combine to create a stunning cultural experience for all those fortunate enough to spend time living there. English teaching jobs in most Asian countries are abundant and lucrative. Approximately 50% of the English teaching jobs available worldwide are found in Asia. Jobs usually include airfare and accommodation. High-paying private tutoring opportunities are common. Asia is a great place to save money... Popular destinations include Japan, Korea, China, Taiwan and Thailand just to name a few. You will love it!

Asian Highlights: In China walk the Great Wall and swim the exotic beaches of Sanya; visit the temples and ruins of Angkor Wat in Cambodia; trek overland to Tibet; sample delicious foods and visit a Buddhist monastery in Korea; explore the jungles and elephant trek in Thailand; shop in Hong Kong... the wonders of the far east cultures are endless!

LATIN AMERICA offers exciting opportunities for the adventurous and the sun loving. Central America, South America and Mexico have attractive teaching positions available throughout the year. You will earn enough money to live comfortably while exploring the diverse landscapes, cultures and people of this fascinating area of the world.

Latin American Highlights: Learn Spanish and dance the Salsa in Colombia; visit exciting festivals such as Carnival in Brazil; surf, swim and wander Costa Rica's tropical beaches; explore Chile's mysterious Atacama desert; tour the ancient Mayan empire in Guatemala; hike to Machu Picchu in the Peruvian Andes; experience indigenous cultures and fall in love with the food, music, people and lifestyle... it is a difficult place to leave!

EUROPE offers an extraordinary mix of culture, history and adventure. Popular teaching destinations include Poland, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Russia, Spain, France, Italy, Greece and Scandinavia, to name a few... people love teaching here because there are so many European, African and Middle Eastern countries in close proximity, which are easily accessible and inexpensive to visit.

European Highlights: Tour a new European country each weekend; learn a new language; experience Eastern Block traditions; See Mona Lisa at the Louvre in Paris; visit Moscow and ride the Trans-Siberian Railway; explore the ancient Acropolis and sunbathe on the endless beaches in Greece... and relax in the vineyards of Tuscany.

The MIDDLE EAST is known for its mystique and magic. Positions in the United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and most other countries of this area offer excellent salaries and generous bonuses to their teachers. Most positions require previous teaching experience (at least one year) and a Bachelor's degree, so most teachers choose to go to the Middle East after they have taught elsewhere for a year or two.

Middle Eastern Highlights: When in Saudi Arabia, join the millions in their pilgrimage to the holy city of Mecca; visit the village of Haballah, a remnant of the old Arabia; relax by the breathtaking Wadi Shals waterfalls in Oman; see the technological wonders in the oil rich nation of Dubai; visit Petra, the prehistoric city in Jordan... and soak in an ancient steam bath in Istanbul, Turkey.

NATIVE ENGLISH SPEAKING COUNTRIES also continue to experience a growth in the demand for English language teachers as people needing to improve their conversational English skills visit, study or emigrate to English speaking countries. Jobs include tutoring foreign students, teaching new immigrants, assisting at ESL summer camps, teaching TOEFL Preparation and more.

Helpful Employment Facts For Job Selection

How Global TESOL Will Help You

As the industry's experts, Global TESOL College's years of knowledge and experience will prove to be extremely valuable for you. Our "Job Placement Specialists" will assist you in selecting the best job, and provide you with very important information on how to wisely negotiate the terms of your contract.

Whether you are planning a short or long term trip abroad to teach English, there are many important factors to consider when selecting a teaching position.

Your Contract

- Contract terms range from a few weeks up to one or two years.
- Many job contracts provide paid airfare and accommodation, and include attractive packages.
- The overall package you are offered depends on the contract details, your credentials and experience, and how quickly the position needs to be filled.
- Each job offers unique benefits and may include such things as free language lessons, paid holidays, housemaids, weekend excursions and meals.
- You can expect salaries and contract terms to vary greatly from country to country, and from school to school. Foreign English teachers may be paid the equivalent salary of a local teacher, or as much as ten times the salary of a local teacher.
- An average work week is 20-25 hours, leaving you ample time to explore and immerse yourself in a new culture.
- Many teachers tutor privately and make a lot more money in a short period of time, often earning double their monthly salary.

Typical TESOL contracts include these categories:

- Contract duration • Start & end date
- Teaching hours/week
- Accommodation arrangements
- Airfare • Other perks
- Monthly salary & bonus pay
- Currency & method of payment
- Medical coverage
- Paid holidays & sick days
- Contract completion pay (often 1 month's salary)

Here's A Typical Job Offer

- One Year Contract in South Korea
- Free Airfare & Accommodation
 - $2,200 US Monthly Salary
 - Teach 25 hrs per week
 - Free Medical Insurance
 - 22 Paid Days Off
 - End of Contract Bonus: $2,200 US

How Much Can You Earn & Save?

This depends on where you work, the level of your TESOL credentials, your spending habits and on the cost of living.

Typically our graduates earn an average of $2000 US per month in many countries and can save anywhere from 25% to 75% of their wages if living within their means. Many teachers save $20,000 US or more each year.

As a general guideline, the wealthier the nation, the more you can make, but the cost of living is usually higher.

How Can I Earn Even More Money?

Many graduates double (or more) their income by working outside of the normal 20-25 hour work week as private tutors or by teaching in specialized fields.
